

Fostering Dialogue among Stakeholders in European Research

Conference on the Gender and Migration policy

National Research Council, Piazzale Aldo Moro n.7

08.30 – 09.00 Registration of participants and welcome coffee

09.00 – 09.30 Opening

Andrea Bozzi, Director of Cultural Identity Department, the Italian National Research Council (CNR)

Mario Ali, General Director for Internationalisation of Research, Italian Ministry for Research, Education and University (MIUR)

Gender & Migration: An overview of current EU policy

09.30 – 11.00 Moderator: Ezio Andreta, President of the Agency for the Promotion of European Research (APRE)

Louisa Anastopoulou, European Commission – DG Research – Unit L2 Research in economic, social sciences and humanities - Prospective

Mara Carfagna *, Italian Minister for Equal Opportunities

Roberta Angelilli*, Vice-President of the European Parliament

Antonya Parvanova, Member of the European Parliament, Vice-president ALDE

Emma Bonino, President of the Commission for Equality and Equal Opportunities, Italian Senate

Souad Sbai*, Member of the Italian Parliament

Renata Polverini*, President of Latium Region

Carlos Martinez Riera, Director of European Office - DG International cooperation and Institutional affairs, Spanish Ministry of Science and Innovation

Challenges and opportunities of cooperation among researchers, civil society and policy makers

11.00 – 11.30 Moderator: Isabella Lenarduzzi, Founder & Managing Director of JUMP “Empowering Women, Advancing the Economy”

Results and recommendations from the GEMMA project

Key note speakers:

Eleonore Kofman, GEMMA representative, Social Policy Research Centre - University of Middlesex

Monika Salzbrunn, GEMMA representative, Ecole des Haute Etudes en Sciences Sociales

11.30 – 13.00 Challenges and opportunities of greater cooperation among stakeholders

Panel discussion with representatives of Research Institutions, Civil Society Organisations and Policy-makers

Leila Hadj-Abdou, Researcher SPS-Department, European University Institute

Ann Singleton, Head of the Centre for the Study of Poverty and Social Justice, School for Policy Studies, University of Bristol

Franca Bimbi, University of Padova

Martin Clément, Haute Autorité de Lutte contre les Discriminations et pour l'Egalité - HALDE

Judit Gazsi, Gender expert, Ministry of Social Affairs and Labour, Department for Gender Equality

Maa Marchand Damarys, Fédération Initiatives des Femmes Africaines de France et d'Europe

13.00 – 13.15 Wrap up session: Outcomes of greater cooperation as a result of the GEMMA project and recommendations for fostering better cooperation

Eleonore Kofman, GEMMA representative, Social Policy Research Centre - University of Middlesex

13.15 – 14.30 Lunch break

Drawing up an action plan for future cooperation

- 14.30 - 16.00 Moderator: Denis Stokkink, Economist & President of the European Think Tank “Pour la Solidarité”
How to implement recommendations and continue to foster greater dialogue among stakeholders
Panel discussion with representatives of Research Institutions, Civil Society Organisations and Policy-makers
- Zerife Yatkin, District councilor of the green party, responsible for human rights, minorities, integration, education and gender
Amaia Sotes Linares Rivas, Economic Officer of the Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe - OSCE
Tanja Dedovic, Project Development Coordinator, IOM - International Organization for Migration in Austria
Special Liaison Mission to the OSCE, UN and International Organizations
Gloria Moreno-Fontes Chammartin, International Migration Programme (MIGRANT) – International Labour Organization - ILO
Barbara Liegl, Civil Courage and Anti-Racism Work organisation
Angela Scalzo*, Migration Policies Department, Italian Union of Labour - UIL
Eugenio Cardi, Responsible for the UGL Observatory on social phenomena, SEI – Sindacato Emigrati-Immigrati
- 16.00 – 16.15 Wrap up session: Key points and recommendations for future cooperation
Denis Stokkink, Economist & President of the European Think Tank “Pour la Solidarité”
- 16.15 – 16.30 Where do we go from here?
Louisa Anastopoulou, European Commission – DG Research – Unit L2 Research in economic, social sciences and humanities - Prospective
Diassina Di Maggio, Director of APRE

*= to be confirmed

Today's groundbreaking research can influence tomorrow's Government policy