

Newsletter #4 - May 2025

Updates from the Field

We are pleased to share that the notebooks and chargers have been delivered and are now in use. These devices were chosen with durability and sustainability in mind, reflecting RAISE-UP's commitment to green practices.

In addition, RAISE-UP backpacks were handed out to some of the students involved in the project.

Here are a few photos from the delivery day:

Upcoming Event & Dissemination

On 3 June, the Leibniz Association will host the #BookaScientist event, offering the chance to chat directly with experts for 25 minutes on a variety of topics.

Among the participants is the Kiel Institute for the World Economy, which will join the discussion and answer questions on diverse issues including prevention of early school leaving — a key topic connected to the RAISE-UP project.

RAISE-UP project is co-funded by the European Union. Views and opinions expressed are however those of the author(s) only and do not necessarily reflect those of the European Union or the European Education and Culture Executive Agency (EACEA). Neither the European Union nor EACEA can be held responsible for them.

Co-funded by the European Union

Meet Partners in the Project

RAISE-UP is a collaborative effort involving six European partners with expertise in youth inclusion and transitions:

LEADING PARTNER

Fondazione LINKS, a Turin-based institution owned by the Compagnia di San Paolo and the Politecnico di Torino. It is an institution that operates in applied research, innovation and technology transfer, acting as a bridge between basic research and the market.

PARTNERS

Fondazione per la Scuola, an instrumental body of the Compagnia di San Paolo that plays a connecting role between the various public and private actors of the educational community. It acts through research projects and initiatives, carrying out experimentation and system interventions for territorial development.

KEAN, a youth association founded in 2004 that is committed to universal values, peace, progress, prosperity and environmental protection. It acts with projects in favour of democracy, the protection of young people's right to work, quality of life and social freedom.

Center for Social Innovation - ZSI, private non-profit institute for applied social sciences and a centre of excellence for social innovation based in Vienna (Austria). ZSI implements research and intervention projects on social inclusion, impact assessment and contributes to the design and dissemination of socially recognized and sustainable innovations to address global challenges.

Kiel Institute for the World Economy - IFW, German research institution for globalization issues. It develops projects that investigate the drivers and effects of international economic activity, the integration and disintegration of global markets, and the opportunities and limits of political action in open economies.

Piazza dei Mestieri Foundation, foundation that promotes the preparation and introduction of young people to work. Its mission is to develop the potential of young people in the transition from adolescence to adulthood through experiencing a positive approach to life, learning and work.

ASSOCIATED PARTNERS

MetropolisNet, policy umbrella organization in Germany, developing and implementing local strategies for employment and social inclusion in a number of European cities.

Fondazione Ufficio Pio, is the instrumental body of the Compagnia di San Paolo Foundation in Italy that supports people in their life plans and family aspirations.

